BIOGRAPHY

Chicago native Evan Dupri is a versatile, budding artist who has built his core following in Murfreesboro & Nashville TN areas, where he's spent the bulk of his upbringing.

While Dupri is still young in the flesh, he is no amateur to the music world, as he has been writing & recording his original content for over 10 years. Constantly on the move, he's made the most of his networking opportunities across the nation, in states such as CA, TN, IL, GA and many more.
